

Miss Van Ingen Is Engaged to G. F. Downey, Jr.

Daughter of Mrs. Edward Van Ingen of New York and Southampton to Be a Bride.

Mrs. Edward Van Ingen of 4 East Seventy-third street last night at an informal dinner announced the engagement of her only daughter, Miss Katherine Van Ingen, to Mr. George Faber Downey, Jr., a son of Gen. and Mrs. George Faber Downey of Washington, D. C.

Miss Van Ingen was introduced to society three years ago at a ball her mother gave at the Dolphin, her cottage in Southampton, where Miss Van Ingen has been one of the most popular young women of the summer colony. She has taken an active interest in the work of the Junior League and during the war in the relief work of the American Red Cross. She has been identified with the outdoor life of Southampton, particularly in tennis at the Meadow Club. She is a granddaughter of the late Edward H. Van Ingen and her brother, Mr. Edward H. Van Ingen, 2d and Lawrence Bell Van Ingen.

Mr. Downey was graduated from Yale in 1918. He served overseas as a captain in the Twelfth Field Artillery. He is a nephew of Mrs. Fairfax Stuart Landstreet and of Messrs. Thomas Beale Davis and Joseph E. Davis of this city, and is closely related to the Davis and Elkins families of Virginia. His wedding will take place early next summer.

Miss Alisa Mellon, who came from Washington for the ball given last night by Mr. and Mrs. Payne Whitney, is visiting Miss Van Ingen at 4 East Seventy-third street.

MISS JOAN WHITNEY MAKES DEBUT AT DINNER AND DANCE

Party for 700 at the Plaza for Mr. and Mrs. Payne Whitney's Daughter.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—The Plaza Hotel, her debut since the memories of some of the older guests back to the days of the general hospitality of her grandfather, the late William C. Whitney, Miss Whitney's debut was in reality a ball preceded by fifteen dinner parties, including the one given by her grandfather to the guests of the late William C. Whitney. The party was accompanied by both a buffet and seated supper and terminated with a breakfast.

Although given in a hotel Mr. and Mrs. Whitney's party had all the characteristics of an entertainment in a private home. From the new entrance the guests, who numbered more than 700, entered into a foyer which, with the terrace restaurant, had been closed to the public. There was the same privacy in the broad staircases leading to the ballroom floor, all of which, with its large and small ballrooms and adjacent corridors and salons, had been reserved for the party. The main restaurant was reached from this secluded section of the hotel. There was no definite hour for the supper. After midnight the guests formed informal groups and gathered about the tables. The ball supper was served in the small ballroom which adjoins the large one.

Breakfast at 4 o'clock. It was the late William C. Whitney, who, in dispensing his hospitality to his generation, gave to New York the vogue of the typical Yankee breakfast. The breakfast was given by Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Townsend. The breakfast was given by Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Townsend.
